National Railroad Museum™

Volunteer Application (rev. May 2018)

Thank you for your interest in volunteering at the National Railroad Museum.

Volunteers founded this organization in 1956. Today, over 60 years later, volunteers continue to play a vital role in the success of the Museum. We are pleased that you would like to share your time and talents to further the mission of the National Railroad Museum.

Please remember the following:

1. All National Railroad Museum volunteers are required to complete this application before beginning their experience.
2. The National Railroad Museum reserves the right to not accept any volunteer; and/or discontinue a volunteer's service at any time.
3. Volunteers are subject to a background check including personal references and criminal records. Volunteers fulfilling any court-ordered community service are required to divulge the nature of their offense(s). This information will remain confidential.
4. Volunteers fulfilling court-ordered community service may be asked to submit additional references or verification of community service requirements/restrictions via official channels.
5. Once your volunteer application is approved, we will contact you to establish a work schedule and invite you to an orientation meeting.
6. As a National Railroad Museum volunteer, you are asked to:
 - a. Conduct yourself in a professional manner while on the Museum grounds.
 - b. Be respectful of fellow volunteers, patrons and the Museum's professional staff.
 - c. Work in a safe manner, especially when operating mechanical or railroad equipment.
 - d. Complete the tasks assigned to you.
 - e. Fulfill your volunteer commitment by being on time and working all hours agreed to.
 - f. Dress appropriately for the task you will be undertaking.
 - g. Address any questions or concerns with the supervisor of the area you are working in or the volunteer coordinator.

Please complete the information on the second side of this form. Thank you for your interest in the National Railroad Museum.
